BREAKFAST.

" By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which g .vern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected excess, Mr Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately-flavored beverage which may save us many heavy decior's hills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until arroug enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maindies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

FOREIGN NEWS.

By the schooner Anna, arrived at Kabului. we have news from the Coast to 14th ultimo. The New Chinese Bill is thus described by the San Francisco Chronicle : "The bill prepared by Senators Miller and Jones and Representative Page, and which will be introduced in the House on Monday next, having already been approved by the Committee an Education and Labor, differs materially from he measure vetued by the President, although, in its changed form, it cannot be considered a what less effective than the original bill. In fact, some of the changes are for the better. That relating to the registration of departing Chinese is a marked improvement upon the passport system included in the vetsed bill, and which formed one of the grounds of Arthur's objections. " In the enacting clause the period the bill is to remain in force is reduced from twenty to ten years. It will be remembered that Edmunds stated in the S-nate that he fully approved of the principal of the bill, but objected to the period of twenty years as unreasonable. He was supported in this position by at least two other Republican Senators, who may, now that the point is conceded, be expected to lend their votes and support the new bill. The suspension of immigration by the terms of the newly-framed bill will commence six'y days after its passage." "Instend of the passport system provided for in the original Act, the new bill devises a system of registration by the Custom-house authorities of all Chinamen leaving the country. All such are to be provided with certificates, which will describe their personal appearance, distinguishing marks, etc. This certificate must be exbibited by the Chinaman on his return to America. It is true that this paper may be improperly used, but it will not be any more subject to abuse than the passport system which the President objected to on the ground that it would thrust on the country a practice being rapidly abandoned by all civilized nations. In any cotingency, under the registration plan proposed by the new bill the number of Chinese in the State at the time it goes into force cannot be increased, and this is a good deal to be thankful for. A prohibition of naturalization is retained in the new bill, and the definition of the term laborer is the same as in the first bill. Several immaterial changes have been made which those in charge of the bill think will prove sufficient to disarm the hostility of the President. Miscellaneous.

Fifty thousand dollars of the capital was immediately taken Its name is the Fremont Savings Bank Company. Hayes will undoubtedly be the first President of the institution.

Washington, April 13 .- The House Committee on the law respecting the election of the President and the Vice-President have agreed upon a bill to carry into effect the provisions of the Constitution respecting the election of said President and Vice-President of the United States, and have directed the Chairman to report the same favorably. The bill provides that electors shall be chosen on the day ext after the first Monday in November, in every fourth year, except in the cases specified in Sections 147 to 149 of the Revised Statutes. That said electors shall vote on the third Tuesday of the December following their appointment. That between the day of choosing the electors and the day they are to vote, the title to office of an elector may be determined, which, if made by the right judicial tribunal of the State having jurisdiction, shall be conclusive. That Congress shall be in session on the second Wednesday in January next after the meeting of the lectors, and shall count the votes. That upon the reading of the certificates the President of the Senate shall call for objections which, if any, shall be made in writing, and shall state clearly and concisely, with argument, the ground thereof, and shall be signed by at least one Senator and one member of the House of Representatives before the same shall be received. In the event of any controversy in any State as to appointment or eligibility of electors, the decisionthereof by its highest judicial tribunal having jurisdiction shall be conclusive, and the votes shall be counted in accordance therewith, unless reversed by both Houses. If there be more than one judicial decision, the two Houses shall determine which shall be received. Where there has been a controversy in any State, and no certified decision has been transmitted; or when two or more such certified decisions have been transmitted, the contested vote from such State shall not be counted, unless both Houses concur therein; and if there be several electoral ertificates from any State, and no such judicial decision, the certificate held by both Houses to be executed by the proper authority shall be onclusive; that if the result is not reached before the fifth calendar day after the first meeting of the two Houses, no further recess shall be taken by either House; that, notwithstanding Estimates Given on all Work the decisions and declarations mentioned, the title to office of any person declared to be elected President or Vice-President, and the title of any claimant thereof, may be died and determined Building Trade, by action in the nature of quo warranto, and ac-tion may be brought prior to actual entry or usurpation, and must be commenced within ten days after the declaration of the election of the efendant in the Circuit Court of the United States for the district in which the defendant, or either of them, reside. The S. F. (hronicle, alluding to the report that the paper had changed hands, says :- "There is | PORT. bsolutely no foundation for such a report. No overtures have been made for the purchase of the paper, and its present proprietor (M. H. De Young) does not intend to sell; nor has he at any time contemplated the sale of the Chronicle, or any portion of it. Any statement to the contrary may be set down as a deliberate and malicious attempt to misrepresent.'

Washington, April 13.—The flight of Howgate is the talk of the city to-night. Up to midnight nothing has been learned of his whereabouts. Soon after his arrest-nearly a year since-his property here, amounting to about $60,000, was attached by the Government, and is now held. Boston, April 12.—Two private letters, dated Irkutsk, February 12, 1882, were received in Salem to-day by the family and friends of Raymond Newcomb, taxidermist on the Jeannette, and one of the survivors now on the way from Irkutsk to St. Petersburg. Writing from near Augsberg, on the Siberian frontier, Newcomb says that, barring unavoidable delays, the party will arrive in St. Petersburg about the 1st May, Lieutenant Danenhower, the writer states, was improving rapidly, and that he (Newcomb) has acting as the latter's amanuensis. Every member of the party has gained in health. The tone IRISH WHISKY of the letters is very hopeful and cheerful.
